Dear Sir/Madam,

REF: APPLICATION FOR STATISTICIAN II

Please refer to the heading above,

I am writing to express my interest to be a Statistician. My background in computer Engineering coupled with a robust knowledge of IT and software applications, positions me well to tackle the technical aspects of data collection work.

My well diversified experiences as witnessed through my curriculum vitae is based on development and management of systems and other more which can be proved by my curriculum vitae and at the time I will be invited for the interview.

Hopefully if I will be given this golden opportunity to work for your organization, I promise I will be available even for extra time so as I can be able to deliver whatever I will be assigned to execute as per the schedule in hand at the particular time.

Thank you in advance for your consideration, I am looking forward to your positive response.

Your Faithfully,

Irene Makava
